Gainford Champion weighs twenty-five hundred pounds. He is one of the lowest down, mellowest and thickest fleshed bulls in use today, and has proven one of the greatest breeders.

His sire, Gainford Marquis, was champion on three continents, being Grand Champion in Canada five or six different times. He was Grand Champion in Canada this year at Toronto. His Junior heifer was first; Senior heifer calf first; Senior bull calf first; and as get of sire first for five years. Gainford Champion's dam was by Mildred Royal, a great breeding bull and considered one of the best bulls in Canada. I brought his sire, Royal Wonder, over from Canada in 1902. Gainford Champion's grand dam, Imp. Emmeline 9th, is a great cow and bred by Wm. Duthie. I have sold some bulls by Gainford Champion to head some of the best herds in the country and they are proving great breeders. Sold in my last sale for $6,500.

Legal Hope is in nice breeding flesh. I think with good care by the time he is four years old he will weigh 1400. He has not had much of a chance to show his worth as a sire in the herd, as I sold all females bred to him in my past sales. His oldest calves are just at a year old, and I can say I am well pleased with them. The day I bought him of Will Dryden, Elliott of Guelph bought his half-sister (being out of the same dam) to put in his show herd, and she was not defeated in two years. His two full brothers were 1st and 2nd at Toronto last year. He is half-brother to Master Ruby (being out of same sire), that sired the Grand Champion female and get of sire at last International. All the calves that sell with their dams are sired by him; all females of breeding age are bred to him.
